

Programme International Conference
City, Citizen & Citizenship. New Perspectives on the Middle Ages
AD 400–1600

Utrecht, online – 16, 17 and 18 June 2021

DAY 1 – WEDNESDAY 16 JUNE (11.00-18.00)

Introduction – Els Rose (Universiteit Utrecht)

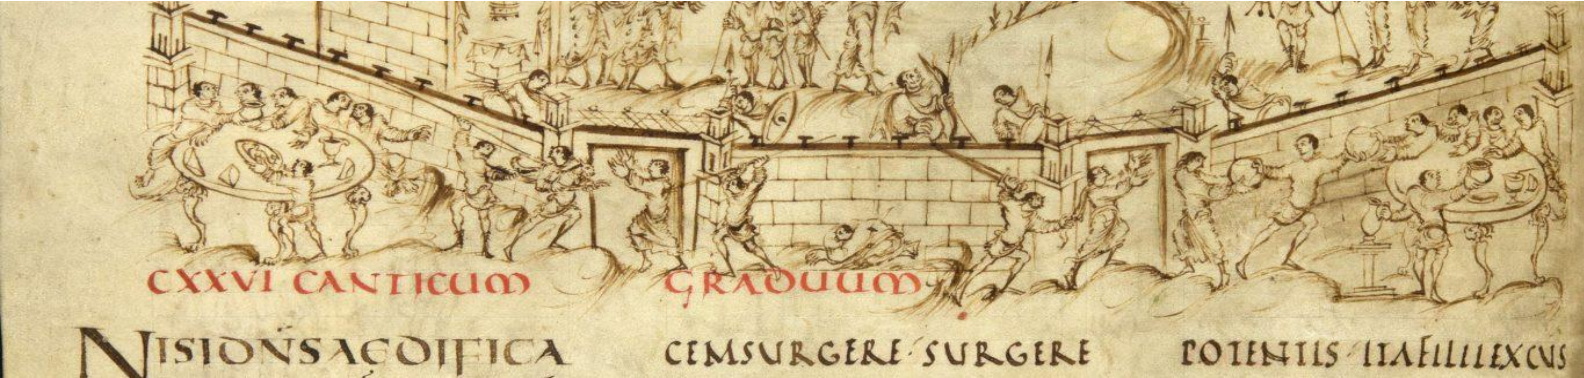

Session I – The Spiritual City

1. Megan Welton (Universiteit Utrecht) – Like a Precious Stone: Civic Discourse and the Construction of the Early Medieval City
2. Merel de Bruin – van de Beek (Universiteit Utrecht) – Being a Christian, Being a Citizen: Civis and Civitas in Late Antique Episcopal Sermons
3. Robert Flierman (Universiteit Utrecht) – Cities as Spiritual Communities in Early Medieval Hagiography

Session II – Rulers and Citizens

1. Peter Brown and Maaïke van Berkel (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen) – Source of Life VICI-project, paper 1: Water Provision in Middle Eastern Medieval Cities: A Multidisciplinary Approach to Urban Water Governance
2. Josephine van den Bent and Angela Isoldi (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen) – Source of Life VICI-project, paper 2: Pleasing God, Serving the Citizens: Charity and Water Supply in Cairo and Baghdad
3. Sam Ottewill-Soulsby (University of Cambridge) – Places of Love and Honour: The Carolingians as City-Founders
4. David Napolitano (Universiteit Leiden) – Mirrors-for-Magistrates: A Medieval Case of Political Trust-Building

Closing Remarks

DAY 2 – THURSDAY 17 JUNE (11.00-18.00)

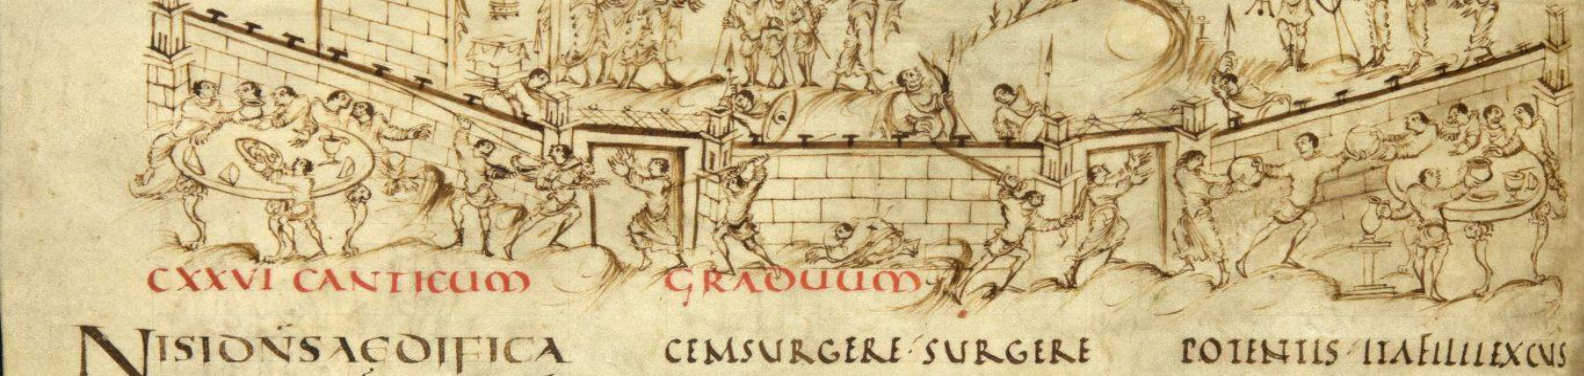

Session III – Urban Boundaries

1. Joost Snaterse (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen) – Charitable Patronage, Religious Boundaries, and Urban Space in the Early Byzantine Empire
2. Claire Weeda (Universiteit Leiden) – Public Health Scripts and the Politics of Urban Wellbeing in Italy and the Low Countries, 1200-1500
3. Marco Mostert (Universiteit Utrecht) – Cities and Countryside, Literacy and Exclusion

Session IV – Civic Cohesion and Conflict

1. Daniëlle Sloom (Radboud Universiteit Nijmegen) – Controlling the People in Byzantine Constantinople
2. Janneke Raaijmakers (Universiteit Utrecht) – Beneficences of Friendship: Transformative Power of Gift Exchange in Late Antiquity and the Early Middle Ages
3. Rob Meens (Universiteit Utrecht) – Civic Cohesion in Turbulent Times: the Urban Community in Bruges and the Murder of the Count of Flanders in 1127
4. Rozanne Versendaal (Universiteit Utrecht) – Printing Joyful Books as a Relevant Society-Shaping Strategy (France / Low Countries, 16th Century)

Closing Remarks

DAY 3 – FRIDAY 18 JUNE (11.00-18.00)

Session V – The City in Space and Structure

1. Javier Martínez Jiménez (University of Cambridge) – Civic Pride and Citizen Commitment in the Visigothic Kingdom
2. Frans Camphuijsen (Universiteit van Amsterdam) – The City as Space, Matter and Community: Unpacking a Late Medieval Legal Landscape
3. Merlijn Hurx (Universiteit Utrecht) – Expressing Civic Pride in Stone: Monumental Architecture in the 15th- and 16th-Century Low Countries
4. Theresa Jäckh (Durham University) – Writing the Spatial History of a Capital City. Palermo under Muslim and Christian Rule (9th-12th Century)

Session VI – The Other City

1. Klazina Staat (Universiteit Gent) – The Itinerarium Einsidlense: a Travel Guidebook? Fashioning an Image of Rome in a Ninth-Century Carolingian Monastic Context
2. Natalia Petrovskaia (Universiteit Utrecht) – Rome and the Medieval Welsh Imagination
3. Nathalie Franckaerts (Universiteit Antwerpen) – Tell Me About Your East: Western Noble Perceptions of the 'Other' City in Late Medieval Mamluk Syria and Egypt

Closing Remarks